

Sales Advertisers in Enterprise.

Tuesday, November 28th, at Pungo-teague by L. M. Smith, horses, farming implements, &c.

Wednesday, November 29th, near Locustville, by W. Fisher Mears, hogs, corn, fodder, farming implements, &c.

Wednesday, November 29th, on Ona-nock creek, by W. B. Pitts, farming implements, corn, potato bed frames, &c.

Wednesday, November 29th, near Bloomtown, by Jos. S. Runtz, household and kitchen furniture,
farming implements, &c.

Thursday, November 30th, near Hall-wood, by L. J. Byrd, horses, cars, corn, hogs, &c.

Thursday, November 30th, near Onley, by Geo. W. Guy, horses, cars, corn, hogs, &c.

Tuesday, December 12th, in Wilsonia Neck, by L. H. Charnock, Sydney Prince colt, oyster bed, and farming implements.

LOCAL NEWS.

Board of supervisors meets Wednesday, December 13th.

Presents for everyone. See advertisement of B. T. Melson in this issue.

Miss J. Maida Revel, of Baltimore, was in town this week visiting relatives.

Mr. R. J. Twyford opened last Monday livery stable in connection with Tasley Hotel.

Mrs. Gordon Abbott, of Boston, is at Mr. Custis, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Tiffany.

Mr. Robt P. Coleburn, of Accomac, left last week to accept position with J. B. Lippincott Co., Philadelphia.

Mrs. R. U. LeCato, of Painter, left last week on a visit to relatives and friends in Brooklyn, N. Y., and Hoboken, N. J.

A meeting of the stockholders of Edge Hill cemetery, Accomac C. H., is called for December 14th, at the clerk's office 7 o'clock p. m.

The next annual meeting of the stockholders of the Eastern Shore of Va. Produce Exchange will be held at Accomac C. H., Wednesday, December 6th.

Rev. J. W. Nicholson, the new pastor for Oak Grove and Garrison Chapel, will preach at those churches at the usual hour for services on next Sunday, 26th inst.

Coleburn & Stockley, Keller, will sell their livery at public auction, Thursday, December 14th. See their advertisement in this issue if you want a good horse, buggy, &c.

The championship foot ball game of the South will be played between the University of Virginia and University of North Carolina at Norfolk, Lafayette field, on November 30th. A special low rate will be given by the N.
Y., P. & N. R. R. on that day.

Dinner will be served on the day of the meeting of the stockholders of the Eastern Shore Produce Exchange at Accomac C. H., December 6th, by the members of the Drummondton Baptist Church, in the shop formerly occupied by the late Geo. W. Garrett on Main street, next to Melson's store.

Roy D. White, special commissioner, in suit of "Mank Moore James and Husband vs. Kate Twyford Lewis and Husband," will sell at public auction on Saturday, December 9th, 3 p. m., at Parkley, two valuable lots situated in that town. For particulars see posters.

In dainty jewelry, diamonds, silverware and cut glass, rare and beautiful products of the gold and silver smiths are offered by Jno. W. Duncan at prices lower than in any city on same goods. See his Christmas stock and you will join the large array of careful buyers.

L. Floyd Nock, special commissioner, in suit of "Jas. E. Berry and wife vs. Wm. L. Berry et al." will sell at public auction, on Friday, December 8th, 1905, at 2 o'clock p. m., the valuable real estate situated near Gargatha, belonging to said parties, containing 45 acres, more or less. For terms &c., see posters.

Mr. W. I. Hancock, housemover of upper Accomac, spent Tuesday at Accomac C. H. moving law offices and the work with his appliances and skill in the business was soon completed. Mr. J. H. Fletcher, Jr., now has a larger office at the same old stand and Mr. Warner Ames occupies the office North of and next to the clerk's office.

Meetings of the Produce Exchange divisions, for the payment of annual dividends to stockholders and to attend to other matters of importance, will be held in the afternoon of Saturday, November 25th, at New Church, Hallwood, Melfa, Bloxom, Onley, Onanock and in the schoolhouse of Oak Hill village, Keller, Nassawadox, Painter at night. Taxation division meets at Accomac C. H., December 2d.

A semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent. will be paid to the stockholders of the Farmers and Merchants' National Bank of Onley, on January 1st.
The directors so decided at their meeting on Tuesday. Three shares of the stock were sold last week for $375 and more is wanted at these figures. The bank was organized about eighteen months ago, and no one need be told with the facts presented that the bank is in a prosperous condition.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Onanock.

Miss Sallie Bishop, of late the guest of her cousin, Mrs. O. L. Parker left for Baltimore, Thursday.

Mr. John DeWitt and Mrs. Webster Marshall are in Washington visiting Mrs. Benjamin Steinmetz.

Miss Mattie G. Bates, of Capeville, Va., is the guest of Miss Sadie Fletcher, at her home on Kerr street.

Mrs. Tibbie Hance and Miss Blanche Joyner, of Baltimore, spent last Saturday with Mrs. G. G. Joyner.

Miss Sadie Fletcher, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Hampton and Norfolk returned home last Tuesday.

Miss Ethel B. Finney entertained a few friends, Monday evening in honor of her friend, Miss Henrietta Coston, of Pittsburgh. Duplicate whist was played and all present spent a most enjoyable evening.

The Onanock Book Club reorganized at Sans Souci, the home of Mrs.
B. K. Powell on Monday evening.
Mrs. Webster Marshall was elected president, and Mrs. B. K. Powell, secretary and treasurer.

Fire caused by a defective flue was discovered in the office of Capt.
Newell B. Rich on Monday evening about eight o'clock. The fire was discovered before it had gained much head way and was soon extinguished.

Mr. Thomas Heath, who was ordained at the meeting of the Conference of the M. E. Church, South, in Lynchburg last week has been visiting his parents this week. He will have charge of a church in Berlin, Md.

Miss Margaret Powell who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Willis LeBaron Hale, of North Attleboro, Mass., returned to her home Kerr Place, Tuesday. Mrs. Powell has not been well since last winter but is much improved by her trip.

The education class of the Onanock High School is preparing for an entertainment to be given in the auditorium of the High School on Thanksgiving evening at 8 o'clock. The entertainment will consist of pantomime, recitations and a short drama.

Mrs. Robert L. Hopkins, Mrs. J. P.
L. Hopkins, Miss Anne E. Hopkins, Miss Virginia Hopkins, Mrs. C. B.
Nottingham, Mrs. Arthur M. Nottingham and Miss Cecil Powell attended the marriage of Miss Susie U. Nottingham to Rev. Edgar Carpenter at Christ Church, Eastville, on Tuesday.

Mr. E. T. Parks is on a business trip to Richmond and Williamson, W.
Va. this week.

Messrs. E. T. Parks and R. L. Parks
this week moved into new dwellings recently erected by them.

Mrs. Eliza Custis, of Baltimore, and Miss Louise Trader, of Oak Hall, are visiting the family of Mr. H. T. Mason.

Mr. F. J. Barnes, who has been in business in New York during the summer and fall has returned home for the winter.

Messrs. E. P. Byrd, W. T. Parks, Jr. and Rev. J. D. Harte attended the Virginia State Baptist association held at Charlottesville recently.

Miss Bessie Mason left Wednesday for Baltimore and Sudersville Md. to attend the marriage of her friend, Miss Elsie George to Dr. Foster Sudler, on Wednesday November 29th.

The dwelling on the Himmam farm, occupied by family of J. Lee Justis caught fire in the kitchen from the stove pipe early Thursday morning.
The fire was put out before much damage was done.

Mr. Leroy Crosswell, a very worthy and upright Christian gentleman, died Monday morning, at 8 o'clock a.
m. after a lingering illness of consumption, aged 54 years. He leaves a widow and one sister. Funeral services by Rev. J. D. Hart and W.
B. Judefind, interment in Onanock cemetery.

The M. P. Church, recently refurnished and with new heating plant at a cost of about $700, was reopened last Sunday. Interesting sermons were preached in the morning and evening by Revs. H. L. Elderidge and W. S. Phillips. The Ladies Aid Society and its friends raised the money to pay for the interior work.
A subscription was taken to pay for the heater last Sunday which was nearly accomplished, leaving only a small balance which will be paid in a few days.

Mr. John L. Rayfield and Mrs. Mollie Rayfield arrived home Tuesday after a short stay in Baltimore.

Capt. John Wright has purchased a very nice gasoline fishing boat, and will engage in sturgeon fishing on our coast another season.

The finest of turkeys are being raised in large quantities on our farms, and are ready for shipment for Thanksgiving and Xmas.

The Mappsville Baptist Church members have almost completed their new baptistry, and will use same in baptizing several converts in a few days.

Charles F. Bloxom will soon be through selling out at this place, and will remove to Bloxom, where he has completed a fine residence. His old stand will be occupied by Mr. O. M.
Chandler with an up-to-date line of goods.

Mrs. E. O. Stiles returned from Baltimore last week, accompanied by her son, Carroll, of Philadelphia.

Misses Maggie Smith and Hattie Johnson left for Baltimore a few days ago to spend several weeks.

Lucille, the four year old daughter of Mr. Collie Hope, died on the 12th inst., of diphtheria. No other children in town are sick with the disease.

Wachapreague Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will give drama, entitled "Female Masonry," during Xmas week. Date will be announced later.

Rev. H. W. Davis was returned by Conference to us for another year in the gratification of all of the members of his church. His wife also receives as cordial a welcome.

An entertainment, consisting of recitations, tableaux and music will be given here Wednesday evening, 29th inst. Admission, adults, 10 cents; children, half price. Proceeds for benefit of church.

Cloaks that are beautiful, that will fit and at prices that will suit.

We sell "P. Centemeri's" kid gloves at P. Centemeri prices.

When you want glasses that suit your eyes—that fit comfortably, you get them at Duncan's.

A complete line of white and fancy vests, silk mufflers, dress and driving gloves, scarfs, bows, ties, handkerchiefs, dress suit cases, umbrellas &c.
I. H. Merrill's Clothing Emporium.

For the most complete line of gent's furnishings, that represent the newest things in neckwear, gloves, shirts and hats see

Ames, Mills & Co.,
Furnishers & Clothiers.

Ames, Mills & Co.,
Furnishers & Clothiers.

Chincoteague.

Mr. Frank Tolbert is erecting a handsome dwelling on Pension Ave.
All of our oyster shucking houses are running in full blast to meet the Thanksgiving orders.

Miss Pansy Russell, daughter of Mr. William Russell, aged 14 years, died after a long illness on the 18th inst.

Attorney G. Walter Mapp arrived here this week on a business trip via Snow Hill. He says that it is the nearest route from Accomac C. H. to this place.

According to a late ruling of Chief Kimball, of the Life Saving Service, the crews of said service can spend a day each week with their families instead of 12 hours as heretofore.

Schooners Moditt, Thomas, Fletcher and other boats loaded here this week with oysters for Norfolk.
Schooner Maggie Davis arrived with a cargo of coal, which was sold at $6.25 per ton.

Paul Bowden and Miss Eliza Reynolds were married on the 16th inst.; William Clark and Miss L. Tindall were married on 17th inst.; William Merritt Jr., and Miss A. Potts were married on 21st inst.

Cards are out for the marriage on Monday, 27th inst., of Charles Washington Purnell, one of our leading merchants, to Miss Flossie L. Messick, daughter of Mr. William J. Messick, chief book keeper of the Wheel-ton Merchandise Co., and one of our prettiest girls.

Mrs. Amy Porter is visiting friends in Norfolk; John Wildman, of Pottsville, Pa., is visiting friends here; Rev. Thos. Davis, of New Jersey, is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. W.
N. Conant; Miss Grace Foley left last week for Philadelphia, to take course of studies in Temple Business College; Mr. Jos. E. Johnson, of Snow Hill, has been employed by Selby & Scott, of this place, as head clerk.

Arrivals at Atlantic Hotel this week:
R. V. Gladding, R. V. Tabman, E. H.
Short, J. Gullette, L. T. Thompson, Baltimore; H. M. Harris, G. E. Benson, C. H. Roach, E. W. Purnell, Philadelphia; D. Hanna, New York; W. H. Dixon, Norfolk; E. H.
Benson, S. D. Powell, Pocomoke city; Fred Howard, Salisbury; A. H. Howard, Berlin; G. Walter Mapp, Ray Dennis, N. B. Rich, C. J. Rew, J. C.
Wescott, Accomac.

Mr. E. T. Parks is on a business trip to Richmond and Williamson, W.
Va. this week.

Messrs. E. T. Parks and R. L. Parks
this week moved into new dwellings
recently erected by them.

Mrs. Eliza Custis, of Baltimore, and
Miss Louise Trader, of Oak Hall, are
visiting the family of Mr. H. T. Mason.

Mr. F. J. Barnes, who has been in business in New York during the
summer and fall has returned home
for the winter.

Messrs. E. P. Byrd, W. T. Parks, Jr. and Rev. J. D. Harte attended the Virginia State Baptist association
held at Charlottesville recently.

Miss Bessie Mason left Wednesday
for Baltimore and Sudersville Md. to attend the marriage of her friend, Miss Elsie George to Dr. Foster Sud-
ler, on Wednesday November 29th.

The dwelling on the Himmam farm,
occupied by family of J. Lee Justis
caught fire in the kitchen from the
stove pipe early Thursday morning.
The fire was put out before much
damage was done.

Mr. Leroy Crosswell, a very worthy
and upright Christian gentleman,
died Monday morning, at 8 o'clock a.
m. after a lingering illness of consumption, aged 54 years. He leaves a widow and one sister. Funeral
services by Rev. J. D. Hart and W.
B. Judefind, interment in Onanock
cemetery.

The M. P. Church, recently refurnished and with new heating plant at a cost of about $700, was reopened
last Sunday. Interesting sermons were preached in the morning and
evening by Revs. H. L. Elderidge
and W. S. Phillips. The Ladies Aid Society and its friends raised the
money to pay for the interior work.
A subscription was taken to pay for
the heater last Sunday which was
nearly accomplished, leaving only a small balance which will be paid in a few days.

Mr. John L. Rayfield and Mrs. Mol-
lie Rayfield arrived home Tuesday
after a short stay in Baltimore.

Capt. John Wright has purchased a very nice gasoline fishing boat, and
will engage in sturgeon fishing on our
coast another season.

The finest of turkeys are being
raised in large quantities on our farms,
and are ready for shipment for Thanksgiving and Xmas.

The Mappsville Baptist Church members have almost completed their
new baptistry, and will use same in
baptizing several converts in a few days.

Charles F. Bloxom will soon be
through selling out at this place, and
will remove to Bloxom, where he has
completed a fine residence. His old
stand will be occupied by Mr. O. M.
Chandler with an up-to-date line of goods.

Mrs. E. O. Stiles returned from Baltimore last week, accompanied by her son, Carroll, of Philadelphia.

Misses Maggie Smith and Hattie
Johnson left for Baltimore a few days
ago to spend several weeks.

Lucille, the four year old daughter of Mr. Collie Hope, died on the 12th
inst., of diphtheria. No other children in town are sick with the disease.

Wachapreague Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will give drama, entitled "Female Masonry," during Xmas week. Date will be announced later.

Rev. H. W. Davis was returned by Conference to us for another year in
the gratification of all of the members of his church. His wife also receives
as cordial a welcome.

An entertainment, consisting of
recitations, tableaux and music will be given here Wednesday evening, 29th inst. Admission, adults, 10 cents;
children, half price. Proceeds for benefit of church.

Cloaks that are beautiful, that will
fit and at prices that will suit.

We sell "P. Centemeri's" kid gloves
at P. Centemeri prices.

When you want glasses that suit
your eyes—that fit comfortably, you
get them at Duncan's.

A complete line of white and fancy
vests, silk mufflers, dress and driving
gloves, scarfs, bows, ties, handkerchiefs, dress suit cases, umbrellas &c.
I. H. Merrill's Clothing Emporium.

For the most complete line of
gent's furnishings, that represent the
newest things in neckwear, gloves,
shirts and hats see

Ames, Mills & Co.,
Furnishers & Clothiers.

Ames, Mills & Co.,
Furnishers & Clothiers.

Ames, Mills & Co.,
Furnishers & Clothiers.

Ames, Mills & Co.,
Furnishers & Clothiers.

Ames, Mills & Co.,
Furnishers & Clothiers.

Ames, Mills & Co.,
Furnishers & Clothiers.

Ames, Mills & Co.,
Furnishers & Clothiers.

Ames, Mills & Co.,
Furnishers & Clothiers.

Harborton.

Mr. W. H. B. Custis is greatly improving his residence by an addition.
Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hutchinson will move next week. We are sorry to see them go.

Mrs. Harry T. Mears, of Onley, visited her mother, Mrs. Thos. Ross, the past week.

Mr. L. P. Allyn, of the firm, Men-haden Oil & Guano Co., left for his home Monday to spend the winter.

Miss Mira Benton, guest of late of Mrs. Della Custis, has returned to her home in Baltimore. One of our boys is lamenting.

Dr. Allyn, of Mystic, Conn., after spending a few days here on vacation, reports having spent a pleasant week and will return in summer.

Miss Valentine V. Read, teacher of Hyslop school and sister, Miss Margie, visited their mother on Sunday to the delight of their many friends.

Mr. C. J. Colonna, wife and son, of Berkley, and Miss Agnes Pentreas, of Norfolk, the guests of Mrs. Henrietta Read, have returned to their homes.

The Robert E. Lee Council, No. 29, Daughters of Liberty, will have an oyster supper here on Thanksgiving afternoon served in the "tip of style".

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Adams and boys have returned to their home, after spending the summer at Reed-ville. We are glad to have them among us again.

Mrs. Sallie Rue is critically ill at this writing.

Assistant Agent Sam Elliott, of On-ley station, has resigned.

Mr. Frank Walter and wife visited Baltimore some days ago.

Mr. James East, very sick some days ago, is now much better.

Mr. John Haley now occupies the handsome dwelling recently built by him.

Mr. Charlie Walker, off on his vacation in Baltimore of late, is now home again.

Mrs. J. R. Fletcher, of Baltimore, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H.
Hebard this week.

The Y's will meet at the home of Miss Lizzie Rogers Friday evening, December 1st. Members are requested to be present at 7 o'clock.

The Halls Chapel field, consisting of Halls Chapel, Shiloh, Saxie and Bloomtown Churches, will hold their regular Thanksgiving services at Halls Chapel on Thanksgiving day, Thursday, November 30, at 2:30 p. m.
We have been very fortunate in securing Brother Mondt to deliver this address. It is hoped that each church will be well represented that we may unite in giving thanks to God for His tender mercies to us.

At this time any, who may have a barrel of potatoes, ham of meat, chickens, canned fruit or any delicacies that would be relished by orphan children, may bring same with them as a donation to the Orphanage.

At the close of this service oysters and other refreshments will be served on the ground. All Christian people of our surrounding community are invited to come and enjoy the services.

L. M. Copeland,
Pastor.

The ladies of Leemont M. P. Church will hold an oyster supper in the old church at Leemont on the afternoon and evening of Wednesday, November 29th. Refreshments for sale. Proceeds for the benefit of the church.

An oyster supper will be served at Grant Memorial M. P. Church, on Thursday afternoon and evening, November 30, Thanksgiving day. Proceeds for the benefit of the church.
All are invited.

Mrs. Virginia Coxton, a most estimable lady, wife of Mr. William H.
Coxton, died Wednesday night at her home at Accomac C. H., aged 85 years. After funeral services at the Drummondton Methodist Church conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. J.
Tulley, her remains were laid to rest in Edge Hill Cemetery.

Her husband, one son, Mr. Wm. B.
Coxton, and four daughters, Mrs. W.
B. Young, Mrs. G. Smith Milliner, Mrs. Geo. W. Crockett and Mrs. G.
Otho Smith survive her.

L. Floyd Nock, special commissioner, will sell at public auction on Saturday, December 9th, 1905, at 1:30 o'clock p. m., in front of the Hotel Doughty, at Accomac C. H., Va., the valuable storehouse and lot occupied by Wm. C. Coleburn and situated at Accomac C. H., Va. This is one of the best stands on the Eastern Shore of Virginia for the mercantile business. For terms see posters.

If you are looking to invest your cash well, come and see our men's and boys' suits, overcoats, hats, etc.

R. L. Shield & Co.

We can sell you a horse blanket or lap robe the pattern you will like at special prices.

Ames, Mills & Co.

To be properly dressed, see us before buying, all the new things in clothing, hats and furnishing goods.

I. H. Merrill.

Car load of hay just received. Coal for sale, 2250 pounds per ton for $6.50.

J. J. Bailey & Bros., Onley, Va.

Mrs. Birdie Hogan, Parkley, will sell stock of millinery regardless of cost, until Wednesday, November 29.
She will leave for Baltimore on Thursday.

Marriages.

Willbank-Parsons.

A pretty marriage was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah H. Parsons, Parkley, Wednesday morning, November 22nd, at 11 o'clock, when their popular and attractive daughter, Augusta Godwin, became the bride of David Willbank, Jr., formerly of Milton, Del., but for the last three years assistant cashier of the Parkley National Bank, deservedly popular in his adopted home. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J.
D. Harte, assisted by Rev. W. B.
Judefind.

The bride wore a traveling suit of blue broadcloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried bride's roses.
The groom wore the conventional black. Miss Emma Parsons, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a light tan voile skirt over taffeta, with hat of light tan and gloves to match.

Mr. Charles Matthews, of Chincoteague, was best man, Messrs. Roy White and Herbert Parsons were ushers. Mendelsohn's wedding march was skillfully rendered during the ceremony by Mrs. John R. Rew. After a wedding breakfast of salads, oysters, olives, pickles, cream, cake and coffee, partaken of by 60 or 70 guests, the happy couple left on noon train for the North. The presents were numerous and consisted of cut glass, silverware, and imported china.

Harmon-Downing.
A beautiful marriage at Wachapreague took place Tuesday, November the fourteenth, at eight thirty p. m., when Miss Euda Downing became the bride of Mr. Colie Harmon.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride in the presence of relatives and a few friends by Rev.
Mr. Friend, rector of the Wachapreague Presbyterian Church, which was followed by a supper. The rooms were tastefully